ARTICLE V
POWERS OF THE BOARD

A. General Powers of the Board:

The Board shall be responsible for the management of the business of the Association, and subject to restrictions imposed by law, by the articles of incorporation or by these by-laws, may exercise all of the powers of the Association.

B. Specific Powers of the Board:

Without prejudice to such general powers, it is hereby expressly declared that the Board will have the following powers to wit:

1. To make and change regulations not inconsistent with these by-laws, for the management of the Association's business and affairs.
2. To appoint and remove all officers, directors, agents, and employees of the Association as prescribed herein or as otherwise approved; prescribe their duties, fix their compensation, if they so deem necessary, and at their discretion, from time-to-time, to devolve the powers and duties of any officer upon any other person for the time being.
3. To pay for any property purchased by the Association.
4. To designate from time-to-time, the time and place of its meetings or to authorize the President to do so.
5. To select and designate such bank or trust company as they deem advisable, as official depository of the funds of the Association and to prescribe and order the manner in which such deposits shall be made and/or withdrawn.

C. Compensation:

No individual shall receive any salary for their service as an Officer or Director of this Association except for Director of Coaching positions.

D. Holding of Office:

No Officer or Director shall hold more than one position at a time. However, Officers are eligible to hold a Director position in addition to their office position. Should a Director position not be filled, the position may be temporarily filled by someone who holds another position until such a position can be filled. Certain Director positions could be filled by outsourcing the function to either the Buffalo Grove Park District or Long Grove Park District or some other third party provider.

E. Replacement of Officers:

1. Any vacancy occurring on the Board of Directors, caused by resignation or any other reason, shall be filled by majority vote of the remaining members of the Board of Directors unless the number of vacancies occurring on the Board reduces the number thereof to less than a quorum. In such and event, a Special meeting of the Association shall be called. The Secretary or such other officer designated by the Board of Directors shall notify each Active Member in writing of such meeting.

2. An officer found negligent in the performance of his/her duties as defined by these by-laws, at the recommendation of the Board, may be removed from office by a three-fourths (3/4) vote of the remaining members of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE VI
NOMINATION AND ELECTION OF THE BOARD

A. Nomination and Election:

1. At the annual meeting of this Association, the active members of the Association shall elect a board of this Association for the ensuing year. Approximately one-half of the Board shall be elected each year to provide for continuity. Elections to the Board shall be for Board Membership, not specific Duties.
2. Nomination and election of the Board shall be the first item of new business at the annual meeting.
3. The nomination committee shall submit a list of candidates. Election of all Association candidates shall require a simple majority vote of the active members present and voting at the annual meeting. Each active member shall be entitled to four votes on one ballot.. The four candidates who receive the majority of the votes will constitute the new board positions. When one or more candidates for the board are tied for the final position(s) on the board, a runoff election shall be held between the candidates receiving the most votes for those board positions. For example, if three people are tied for the fourth position on the board, the candidates with the two highest number of votes will face each other in a runoff election. The chairman of the nominating committee shall be responsible for setting forth all election rules and procedures not provided for in these bylaws. In addition, the chairman of the nominating committee shall settle all disputes involving the election process.
4. Members who wish to submit their names to the nominating committee must submit their name to the nominating committee no later than 20 days prior to the annual meeting of this Association. Said submission must contain name of the member, a brief biography of the member, and the position the member is running for.
5. Voting for the election of any candidate shall be by written ballot at the annual meeting.
6. A member of the association eligible to vote may vote by proxy. A member's proxy vote must be assigned to another member eligible to vote. No member may act as proxy for more than one other member.
7. At the conclusion of the voting and election, the new Board will as a group, decide on specific Board Positions for the entire Board.
8. Board Members shall not retain the same Board Position for more than 2 consecutive terms unless approved by a unanimous vote of the new board.
9. At the conclusion of the election of the Board, the conduct of the annual meeting shall be turned over to the President or president-elect, who will chair the rest of the annual meeting.

B. Term of Office:

The term of office shall be for two years, and shall begin immediately following completion of the elections.

Four Board members will be elected in the following years:

2006 (December), 2008, 2010, 2012 ,2014, 2016

2006 (December), 2007, 2009, 2011 ,2013,2015

The following director positions shall be appointed by the board following the December 2006 elections and then every two years thereafter. The term of office shall be two years.

Director of Field Operations and Scheduling

Director of Tournaments

Director of Coaching: Girls

Director of Coaching: Boys

The positions of Park District Advisor and Immediate Past President are not elected positions and are non-voting positions.

C. Conflict of Interest:

No officer or Director of this Association shall engage in any profit-making activity with which this Association is directly or indirectly involved, without prior written approval by the Board of Directors. Any person found not to be in compliance with this provision shall be removed from his or her position with this Association, and may be held liable for damages resulting from said breach of fiduciary responsibility. This provision does not apply to paid referees or the Director of coaching.

ARTICLE VII COMMITTEES

A. General Committees:

Each committee shall keep regular minutes of their proceedings and report the same to the Board.

B. Standing Committees:

1. Nominating Committee:

The President shall assemble a Nominating Committee which shall be comprised of three active members of the Association. The Nominating Committee shall provide a list of nominations for slates of officers to be elected that year at the annual meeting. The previously mentioned list of slates will be presented at the annual meeting to be voted on. If any member of the nominating committee is seeking election to any position on the Board, the President shall appoint another active member of the Association to replace that individual on the Nominating Committee. The Nominating Committee shall provide the Board of Directors a list of nominated slates no less than 15 days prior to the election and the list of nominated slates shall be published either in the Association's newsletter, on the Association's web site, or a newspaper of general circulation in the community at least 15 days prior to the annual meeting. The Nominating Committee shall be responsible for drafting and approving ballots, and for establishing and administering all board election procedures at the Association's annual meeting. Except as provided for in these bylaws, the Nominating Committee shall also draft and approve rules for board elections.

2. Rules Committee:

The Rules Committee is established to insure that all of the Rules and Regulations of the Association adhered to by the players, referees, coaches, and parents. This committee shall resolve all disputes concerned with the rules and regulations of this Association. This committee shall be responsible to recommend changes to the rules and regulations to the Board. This committee shall be chaired by the Vice-President of Operations and Support, and shall include the Vice-President of Programming, the Vice-President of Competitive Programs, one at-large referee and other members appointed by the president.

3. Soccer Advisory Committee:

The Soccer Advisory Committee is established to collaborate with staff in the ongoing review of the various programs of the Association in relation to "best practices" in the soccer community and to advise the Board of its findings and recommendations. It may recommend to the Board any changes to the Rules and Regulations that may be required. The committee shall be chaired by the Vice President At Large and will include persons considered knowledgeable in soccer by virtue of their training and experience and/or knowledge of Association programs as appointed by the President.

4. Strategic Planning Committee:

The responsibilities of the Strategic Planning Committee will include long term planning for the benefit of Association, to address issues for constant improvement of the Association's programs, and to review annually revisions and changes to the Bylaws and Rules and Regulations. Voting members shall consist of the Vice-President of Operations and Support, who shall be the Chairperson and other members appointed by the President.

C. Other Committees:

The Board may, by resolution passed by a majority of the whole Board, designate and appoint such committee(s), including a chairperson on any subject within the powers of the Association; such committee(s) and chairperson to have such powers, to exercise such duties and to perform such services as may be prescribed, from time to time, by the Board. Such committee(s) shall have such name or names as may be stated in these bylaws or as may be determined from time to time, by resolution by the Board.

ARTICLE VIII
MEMBERSHIP

A. General:

1. Membership in this organization is open to all members of the community regardless of age, sex, race, national origin, color, creed, or religion.
2. Membership in this Association shall consist of honorary members, active members, participating members, and affiliate members.

B. Specific:

1. Honorary Members:

Honorary Members may be extended by the Board to individuals who have rendered outstanding or extraordinary service in the promotion of youth soccer.

2. Active Members:

Active Members shall consist of the following: officers, directors, coaches, adult registered players, and parents or legal guardians of registered U8- U19 travel soccer players.

3. Participating members:

Participating members shall consist of resident and non-resident registered players and referees that have participated in either the spring or fall playing season of the current calendar year.

- a. A resident is any member with a Buffalo Grove or Long Grove address and those areas identified by Park Districts as addresses that are considered "resident" by their identification.
- b. A non-resident is any member living outside the boundaries of Buffalo Grove and/or Long Grove unless stated by the Park Districts.

4. Affiliate members:

Affiliate membership may be extended to persons from other areas, not registered with this Association but are an organized, non-profit Association or Association for the purpose of fostering youth soccer. Affiliate membership may also be extended to persons, Associations, or other entities that make monetary or other donations to assist in the sponsorship of various youth soccer activities by this Association.

C. Right to Vote:

The following individuals shall have a right to vote at the annual or special meeting of the members of this Association:

- 1) Each registered adult player; and
- 2) A parent or guardian of a registered U8-U19 youth travel soccer player. The parent(s) or legal guardian(s) of a registered U8-U19 youth travel soccer player or players shall be entitled to only one vote per registered player. For example, a family with one registered U8-19 youth travel soccer player shall have one vote and a family with two registered U8-19 youth travel soccer players shall have two votes.

“Registered” as used above is defined as an adult or youth player registered to play for Grove United Soccer Association during the fall and/or spring season for which the annual or special meeting is being held.

In order to vote, the voter must be a current member of an Association adult team at the time of the annual meeting, or the parent or legal guardian of a current member of an Association U8-U19 travel soccer team at the time of the annual meeting. Further, in order to vote the member's account with the Association must be current.

Those members entitled to vote shall do so in person, except by proxy voting as provided in Section VI, paragraph A7.

D. Termination of Membership:

1. Any member of whatever class may terminate his or her membership by written notification to the Secretary of this Association.
2. If the Board finds the conduct of any member is negligent in the performance of their duties as defined in these by-laws, purposely ignores the Rules, Regulations, or is detrimental to the objectives of this Association, it may suspend the member, or take such other sanctions, or actions deemed necessary under the circumstances, such action will require a three-fourths (3/4) majority vote of the entire Board.

E. Fees:

1. By whom Paid :
 - a. Active Members may contribute donations.
 - b. Participating members shall pay a fee determined by the Board.
 - c. Affiliate members shall pay a fee determined by the Board.
 - d. Honorary members shall pay no fees unless they fall into the above classes of members.
2. When Payable:

Fees for each playing season shall be payable at the time of registration of the participating members and/or at the time the Board determines the fees shall be paid. For all other members, fees shall be paid at the time the Board determines the fees shall be paid.

F. Liability of Members:

No member of this Association, either active or otherwise, shall be personally or otherwise liable for any of the debts, liabilities, and/or obligations of this Association or as otherwise provided by law.

G. Term of Membership:

1. The Board shall have the power to admit by invitation as honorary or affiliate members of this Association and for such period as they may elect to renew such invitations at its discretion. Such members shall enjoy such privileges and benefits as may be determined by the Board, except that they shall not vote or hold office.
2. The term of membership for all Board members shall be from election at the annual meeting to the annual meeting at the end of term, as prescribed in Article VI, Sec. B.
3. The term of membership for all other members shall be for one year from date of registration of membership.

H. Parental and/or Guardian Volunteer Commitment:

All parents and/or legal guardians of minor registered players must fulfill volunteer requirements as adopted by the Board.

ARTICLE IX MEETINGS

A. Specific:

1. The annual meeting of the Association shall be held during the month of December of each year. By majority vote, the Board shall establish the date, time, and place of the annual meeting. The Board shall give a minimum of 30 days written notice of the annual meeting. The Secretary or such other officer designated by the Board shall notify each active member in writing of such meeting.
2. The annual meeting shall be held for the following purposes:
 - a. Presentation of the Association status.
 - b. Presentation of a financial report for approval by the voting membership.
 - c. Nomination and election of the Board.
 - d. Voting on amendments to the by-laws. Such amendments must be presented to the Board and approved at its regularly scheduled meeting at least 30 days in advance of the annual meeting and must be published in Association's newsletter, the Association's web site, or a newspaper of general circulation in the community at least 15 days prior to the annual meeting.
 - e. Disposal of other Association business.

B. Special General Meetings:

Special general meetings of the Association may be called for the purpose of conducting Association business. Such meetings may be called by the Board.

C. Board Meetings:

1. Regular meetings - The Board shall hold regular monthly meetings during the year. All members, affiliate members and honorary members are invited to attend.
2. Special meetings of the Board may be held as needed.
3. Call of meetings - Meetings of the Board for any purpose or purposes may be called at any time by the President or, if he/she is absent or unable, or refuses to act, by a majority of the remaining Board.
4. Quorum: In order for business to be conducted at any meeting of the Board, 60% of the active Board members must be present rounded to the nearest number.
5. From time to time, the Association understands that there are decisions the board must make between monthly meetings, therefore, the president may call for board voting to be conducted by email. Said email voting must be formally presented and approved at the next monthly meeting. The board will refrain from email voting unless there is an emergency or it is impractical to wait for the next monthly meeting. Every act or decision done or made by a simple majority of the authorized number of Board members present at a meeting duly held at which a quorum is present shall be regarded as the act of the Board, unless a greater number be required by law, by these by-laws or by the articles of the Association. The President shall not have a vote at any meeting of the board except to break a tie vote of the other board members.

ARTICLE X
RULES AND REGULATIONS

- A. This Association shall adopt a set of rules and regulations. Those rules covering the play of the game of soccer shall be entitled "Association Playing Rules of the Game". Those rules relating to the determination of league play, championship play, establishment of teams, and like matters, shall be entitled "Association Regulations".

- B. The ASSOCIATION Playing Rules of the Game and Regulations shall be changed by recommendations of the Rules Committee, and approved by a majority vote at a regular Board meeting.

ARTICLE XI
DONATIONS

This Association may accept gifts, legacies, donations, and/or contributions, in any amount and in any form, from time-to-time, upon such terms and conditions as may be decided from time-to-time by the Board.

ARTICLE XIII
FISCAL YEAR

The fiscal year shall be July 1st through June 30th .

ARTICLE XIV
MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

A. Corporate Seal:

The Corporate seal of the Association shall be in such form as the Board shall determine and shall contain the name of the Association, and other matters the Board, at their discretion, may determine. Said seal may be used by causing it or a facsimile thereof to be impressed, affixed, or reproduced.

B. Principal Office:

The principal office shall be established and maintained in the village of Buffalo Grove, County of Lake, State of Illinois.

C. Other Offices:

Other offices of the Association may be established at such places as the Board may, from time-to-time, designate, or the business of the Association may require.

D. Drafts and Notes:

All drafts, or other orders for the payment of money, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness issued in the name of the Association for all debts of the Association shall be approved by a majority vote of the Board at a regular Board meeting, and shall be signed by the Treasurer. The Board may, at its regularly scheduled monthly meeting and by a simple majority vote of the committee members present, approve capital expenditures in an amount not to exceed $3,000.00. A concurring vote by the entire Board shall be sought at the next regularly scheduled Association Board meeting. However, in the absence of a quorum the decision by the Board shall be binding to the Association.

E. Notice and Waiver Notice:

Whenever any notice is required by these by-laws to be given, personal notice is not meant unless expressly so stated, and any notice so required shall be deemed to be sufficient if given by depositing the same in a post office box in a sealed postpaid wrapper, addressed to the person entitled thereto at his last known post office address, and such notice shall be deemed to have been given on the day of such mailing. Any notice required to be given under these by-laws may be waived by the person entitled thereto. Members not entitled to vote shall not be entitled to receive notice of any meetings except as otherwise provided by statute.

F. Purchases:

When at all possible, purchases should be favorable to local businesses in the Buffalo Grove and Long Grove area.

G. Dissolution:

Upon the dissolution of the Corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
